

Labs New Artists III

FAQ:

What is Labs New Artists III Open Call?

Labs New Artists III Open Call is a prestigious international open call for emerging photographers, unrepresented by a gallery or agency and selected by a jury of industry leaders. Selected work is featured at Labs New Artists exhibition, a summer group show at Labs Gallery. In 2019, the exhibition will happen for a third year in a row. Over the past years, Red Hook Labs has helped launch careers of numerous artists around the world and is dedicated to provide continuous support. Therefore, each artist selected for this exhibition will also be paired with one of the open call jurors for a yearlong mentorship following the show. As well, the exhibition will travel internationally.

Who can submit?

Any photographer, unrepresented by a gallery or an agency, can submit to this Open Call. This is an international open call, so we accept submissions from all over the world. Also, there are no age requirements.

What is the cost?

It costs $25 to make a submission to this Open Call. The fee goes directly to Red Hook Labs Education & Jobs Initiative, a 501(c)3 non-profit, that provides free photography classes to underserved youth in Brooklyn, Los Angeles and London.

I have shown my work in a gallery before. Can I submit?

Yes, you can submit as long as you are not represented by a gallery.

Can I submit my work if I have previously been represented by an agency or gallery but am not currently?

Yes, you can still submit if you are currently not represented by a gallery or agency.

How do I choose what to submit?

Please submit an edit of your best work. You can submit up to 20 images which can be from different bodies of work. There are no restrictions in terms of how many bodies of work you can submit - you can submit one project or you can submit a few. Once you are selected, we will select the work from your submission to showcase in the exhibition.

What happens to my work after the exhibition?

Red Hook Labs gallery will sign a consignment agreement with you before the exhibition which allows Red Hook Labs gallery to sell your work for a year following the exhibition. Your artwork will be stored at Red Hook Labs storage for that year and after that you will be able to collect any unsold pieces. The exhibition may also travel to be showcased in other countries.

Can I submit video works?

This Open Call is for photographers only.

Are diptychs allowed?
